

EVENT MANAGER (FULL TIME) SPIRITED UNION DISTILLERY

Are you passionate about spirits and drinks? Want to dive deep into the art of distillation? Do you want to be part of one of the fastest growing botanical rum brand in the Netherlands and tell our sustainable story to the world?

The experiences that we are offering in our distillery must be hosted by people who are passionate about our craft, have a hospitality mindset and are commercially driven. Sales is a big part of this role in which you will be supported by our marketing team to grow the business.

A day in the life of the Event Manager:

- Drive sales via booking support and build relationships with re-sellers.
- Set-up of the workshops and make sure all items are in stock.
- Welcome our guests, give the workshops, present our story, and guide the groups.
- Shake and serve different types of Spirited Union Cocktails.
- You are responsible for representing Spirited Union at workshops and events.

What you offer:

- You're representative, outgoing, and commercial.
- Flexible in your working hours, this is no 9 to 5 job.
- Excellent presentation skills and can handle a PowerPoint.
- Outstanding English, both verbal and written (we are an international company).
- Basic knowledge (combined with passion) about spirits and cocktails.
- You must be at least 21+ years old.

What we offer:

- A chance to be part of something new and exciting, help building a company & brand from the ground up.
- Working with a young, passionate, and smart crew of people.
- A central Amsterdam extraordinary working location.
- Real responsibility – You make the experience complete.
- A contract based on 32 hours with bonus based on performance.
- Unlimited high fives and plenty of rum.

APPLY

If you want to be part of our journey, send an email to Jef at jef@spirited-union.com with your CV and brief motivation.

ABOUT SPIRITED UNION DISTILLERY

The story behind each of our spirits starts with the colourful world of herbs and spices and how they can create vibrant tastes. Making a delicious drink is a bit like cooking a delicious meal; you need to combine textures and tastes to create a memorable experience. So, we start with the flavour kick we're trying to create then replicate it by exploring the vast world of botanicals and infusions. Each ingredient needs to be infused or distilled for the right length of time. Delicate aromatic flowers, leaves and seeds need less infusion time. Harder fruits, roots and barks need longer. (It's one of the reasons why each batch carries its own unique number)

To rejuvenate the rum category, we've opened the doors to our very own distillery located in Amsterdam. Its eco-friendly and all our spirits are made with real ingredients. Better tastings and Better for the world.